NEW AFS STUDENTS WELCOMED AT PICNIC

American Field Service people from the New Bedford area met with students and families for the annual picnic held at Shining Tides in Mattapoisett. After lunch, New Bedford Area president, Raymond Mitchell, welcomed everyone, and introduced the new students and their families that were present. This year, Miss Gabrielle Falderbaum of Germany is staying with Dr. and Mrs. Emery Lewis of Dartmouth; Frank Jordensen of Denmark is with the Lawrence Richardson family of Onset and attending Wareham High School; Miss Rosalind Henson of South Africa is with the Kenneth Hirons family in Mattapoisett and attending Old Rochester Regional; Miss Kirsten Moy of Norway is staying with the W. Wallace Pittendreigh family of New Bedford; and Miss Michiko Kikima of Japan is living with the Hjalmer A. Ray family in Fairhaven.

Mrs. Clayton Taylor, Jr. District Representative of New Bedford, spoke briefly, and it was announced that there was a new position in the Chapter, that of Student Contact. Mrs. Ruth McKinney holds this new position. Mr. Mitchell said the big news was of the 50th anniversary convention held at the World's Fair in August. Secretary of State, Dean Rusk, gave the speech at the opening dinner. Mr. Mitchell introduced Miss Elizabeth Hastings of Fairhaven, Student Advisor for the area, who told about AFS week at the Fair. She said there was a need to push the program in the Orient and South America.

It was announced that October 1st the students and their American brothers and sisters are invited to the third annual water front tour. They are to meet at the Whaling Museum in New Bedford at 10 A.M. Date for Citizen's Day will be announced. This is a visit to the State House and guest of the Governor.

Robert Barylski of New Bedford was introduced and told of organizing the returnees to help with AFS. Attending from Old Rochester Chapter were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hirons and daughters, "Rosalind", Jean, Carole, Kristin and Marcia; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hartley and daughters, Phyllis and Deborah; Mrs. A. Barton Cummins and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Chase and daughter, Karen.

REGIONAL CHORUS

A Regional SATB chorus is forming in this area in conjunction with the Regional Symphonic Band. Rehearsals have begun and the group is preparing to participate in the fall concert of the Symphonic Band.

A variety of music is being directed by Zavan Mazmanian, music director at Old Rochester Regional High School.

This organization is still in the early rehearsal stage and is open to everyone in the area who is interested and can read music. You are most welcome to join us in the auditorium of the Old Rochester Regional School Monday evenings at 8 P.M.

COUPLE WED IN ROCHESTER

Following a week's honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Goodwin, Jr. are residing on Myricks Street, Lakeville. They were married in a double ring ceremony at St. Rose of Lima Church, Rochester, performed by the Msgr. Francis J. Greene. Church music was provided by organist, Kenneth Broadbent, of Lakeville and the St. Rose choir. Pink and white gladioli decorated the altar for the nuptials which were immediately followed by a reception at Rochester Grange Hall.

The bride, the former Lucile Ouellette, is the daughter of Joseph W. Ouellette of Hartley Road, Rochester. The bridegroom is the son of Chester E. Goodwin of Lakeview Rest Home, Lakeville.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of tissue taffeta fashioned with a portrait neckline embellished with Alencon lace, appliqued and frosted with water crystals, with long tapered sleeves of lace aplique. Lace embraced the front of the controlled bell skirt and a bow at the back waist framed the bouffant chapel train. A crown of pearls and crystals held her illusion veil. She carried a prayerbook with an orchid and Maid of honor was Miss Katherine Sousa of Rochester. Carrying an old fashioned bouquet of pink, blue and white roses, carnations and daisies, she wore a floor length gown of satin du charme in light blue designed with dark blue back panels accented by two large cabbage roses at the waist, a cameo neckline and three quarter length sleeves. A bouffant veil was caught to her headpiece of matching fabric designed with petals and framed with wide bow loops.

Attired in similar gowns of dark blue with contrasting light blue accented details, the bridesmaids were Mrs. Audrey Ouellette of New Bedford and Mrs. Lois Ouellette of Middleboro, both sisters-in-law of the bride. They also carried old fashioned bouquets.

Robert Ouellette, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Norman Ouellette of Middleboro and Paul Ouellette of Rochester, both brothers of the bride.

For her traveling the bride chose a mocha wool suit, brown patent shoes and bag, white hat with cranberry trim and cranberry jewelry. She is a graduate of Wareham High School.

OFFICERS ELECTED AT GRANGE

Officers were elected at a meeting of the Mattapoisett Grange held last week at the Grange Hall. Mrs. Lemuel LeBaron was reelected as master. Other officers elected are Otto Kellish, overseer; Miss Christine Bence, lecturer; Joseph Furtado, steward; Barry Denham and Miss Susan Bence, assistant stewards; Mrs. Harry Downing, chaplain; Lemuel LeBaron, treasurer; Mrs. Roland C. Shaw, secretary; Miss Donna Hubbard, gatekeeper; Mrs. Edward C. Toolis, Ceres; Mrs. Joseph Furtado, Pomona; Mrs. John Barber, Flora; Albert Pemberton, member of the executive committee for three years; and Walter Caswell, pianist. The installation will be held on October 1st, open to the public.

The charter was draped for John F. Denham in a ceremony performed by Mrs. Harry Downing, assisted by Mrs. Jennie Toolis and the assistant stewards, Barry Denham and Miss Susan Bence.

Mrs. Barber gave a report of the year's activities of the home and community service committee. A report on the painting of the building was given by William A. Smith.

Representing Sippican Pomona Grange was Robert Ouellette and Fairhaven Grange, Miss Susan Wordell.

Coffee and cake were served by Mrs. Helmuth Heuberger, Jr. and Mrs. Roland Shaw.

GRANGE OFFICERS MEET

The officers of Mattapoisett Grange met in the Grange Hall Sunday night to plan the year's activities. Committees were appointed by the master, and a fine lecturer's program was made up by Christine Bence and her literary committee.

Discussion was held on having an auction, suppers, and card parties to raise money for the painting fund, dates to be announced later.

The hall is taking on a new face and the town of Mattapoisett will be proud of this fine old historical building, the home of Mattapoisett Grange.

AFS MEETING

The first monthly meeting of the American Field Service, Old Rochester Chapter, was held on Tuesday evening, September 15th, at the High School. It was decided at this time that the regular meeting night would be the second Thursday of each month at 7:30 P.M. Four committees were established as follows: fund raising with Mrs. Arthur MacLean and Mr. Albini as co-chairmen; Americans Abroad, Mrs. Herbert Hartley, chairman; and Homes, Mrs. Bart Cummins, chairman.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

Many newspapers announced Tuesday, September 15th, that Thaddeus Buczko, Salem Postmaster, is likely to be appointed by Governor Peabody to fill the unexpired term of the late State Auditor, Thomas Buckley, and to be named for the office on the November election ballot by the Democratic State Committee.

Mr. Buczko was described as having strong support from both Senator Edward Kennedy, whose Essex County campaign he ran two years ago, and from Lt. Governor Bellotti, whom he actively supported in the recent Primary.

I had understood that since the Hatch Act, Postmasters were among the Government employees who are prohibited from "actively supporting" candidates in political campaigns.

News items stated that the late President Kennedy made the Postmaster appointment last year. Probably many other hard-working Democrats will feel he was sufficiently rewarded by that $11,200 a year job.

GRANGE FAIR WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Out of towners as well as Rochester residents were among the many adult and young fair goers viewing the large variety of exhibits featured at the 257th Rochester Grange Fair. Among the well displayed items were prize produce, canning, baked goods, arts and crafts, needlework, floral arrangements and animal husbandry.

Department of Agriculture State ribbon was awarded to Karen Martin of New Bedford Road for her hubbard squash entered in the youth exhibits. Massachusetts State Rosettes, which are awarded on a point system, went to John Tassanari in the youth department and to Mrs. Sophie Tassanari in the adult division. Both are from Plymouth Street, North Middleboro.

A highlight of the fair was the junior and 4-H exhibits. Livestock, sheep and poultry were also featured by a number of the young participants. Activities of the two-day event included games, gift tables, a supper and concluded with an auction. Thomas Gayoski, grange master, was auctioneer. Mrs. Dorothea Hedges was supper chairman.

Blue ribbon winners in the adult exhibits included vegetables in container, Thomas Gay-
